

Hark the Herald Sing

- Session 28 of ?
- MEN to MEN
- A Bible Study about a letter written to the Church in Rome
- Romans 10: 12-21

For whoever will call upon the name of the Lord will be saved.

12 For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord is Lord of all, abounding in riches for all who call on Him;

13 for “Whoever will call on the name of the Lord will be saved.”

14 How then will they call on Him in whom they have not believed? How will they believe in Him whom they have not heard? And how will they hear without a preacher?

15 How will they preach unless they are sent? Just as it is written, “How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news of good things!”

16 However, they did not all heed the good news; for Isaiah says, “Lord, who has believed our report?”

17 So faith comes from hearing and hearing by the word of Christ.

18 But I say, surely, they have never heard, have they? Indeed, they have; “Their voice has gone out into all the earth,

And their words to the ends of the world.”

19 But I say, surely Israel did not know, did they? First Moses says, “I will make you jealous by that which is not a nation,

By a nation without understanding will I anger you.”

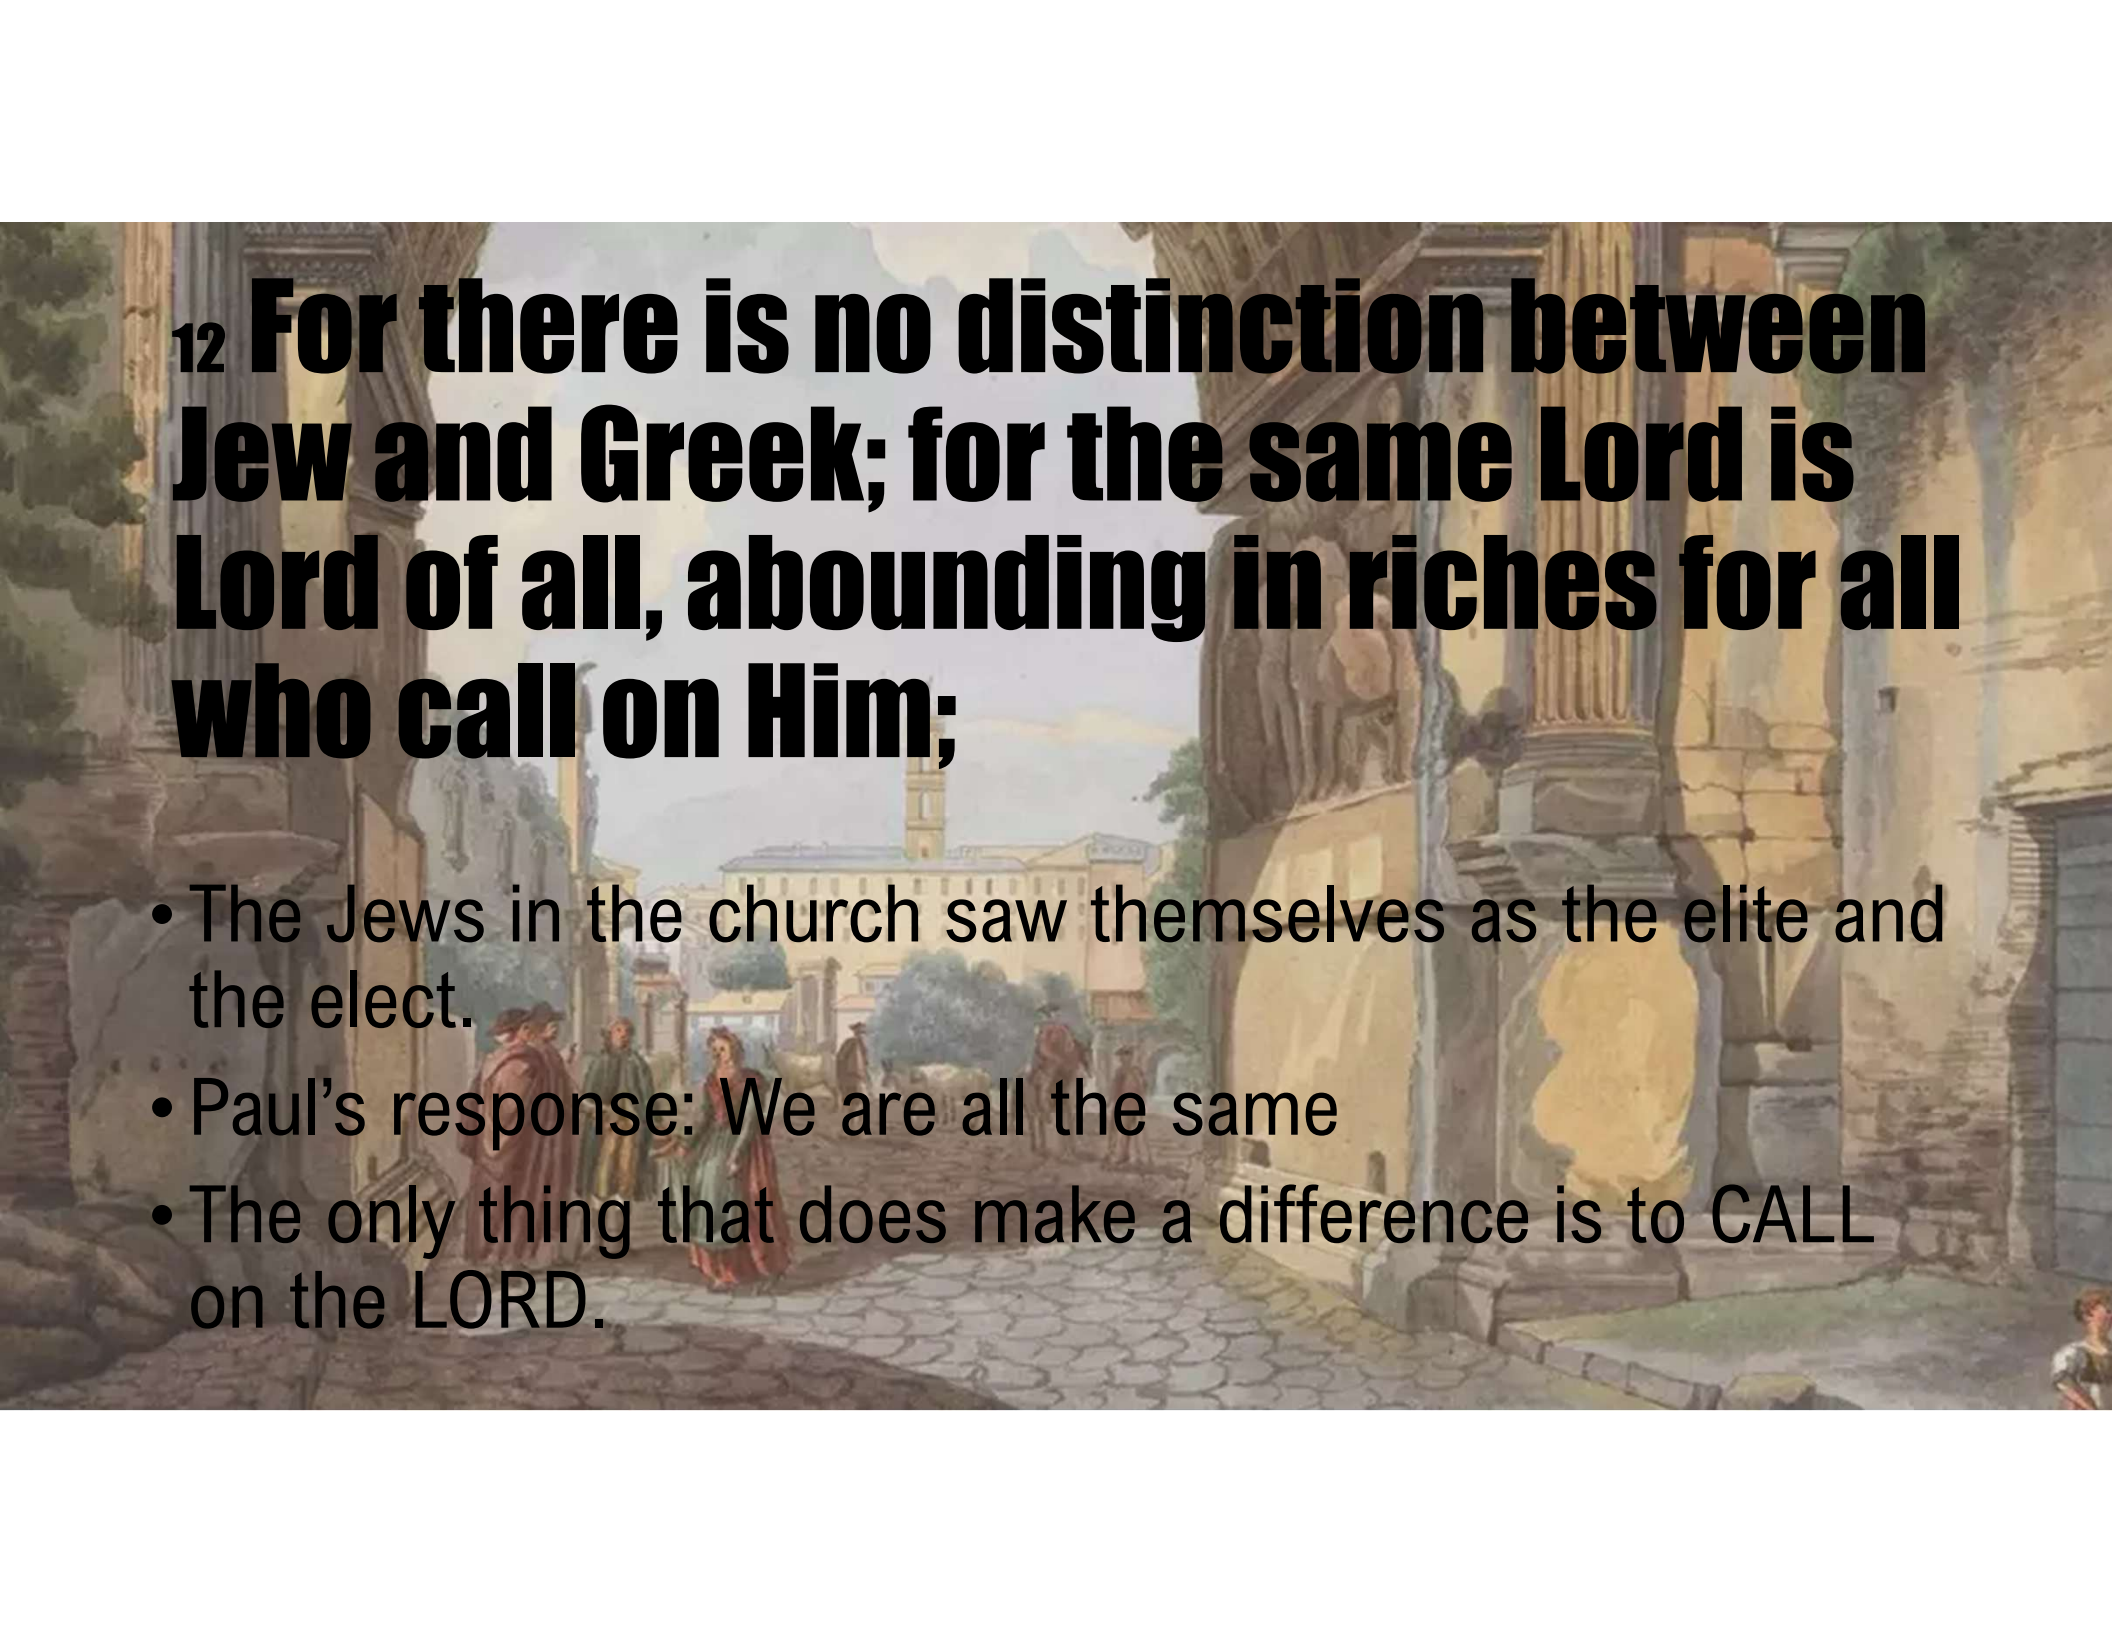

20 And Isaiah is very bold and says, “I was found by those who did not seek Me, I became manifest to those who did not ask for Me.”

21 But as for Israel He says, “All the day long I have stretched out My hands to a disobedient and obstinate people.”

salvation

A painting of an ancient Roman street scene. In the foreground, several people in traditional Roman attire (togas) are walking along a cobblestone path. The architecture features large, classical columns and arches. In the background, a large building with a prominent tower or bell tower is visible under a hazy sky. The overall style is that of a classical or neoclassical painting.

¹² For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord is Lord of all, abounding in riches for all who call on Him;

- The Jews in the church saw themselves as the elite and the elect.
- Paul's response: We are all the same
- The only thing that does make a difference is to CALL on the LORD.

13 for “Whoever will call on the name of the Lord will be saved.”

I was drowning in a sea of sin, thrashing and swimming as hard as I could and trying to just stay afloat for one more day, I could not do it any longer. With one last breath, I called and Jesus came by in a boat and threw me a lifeline and pulled me on board and He saved me.

A classical painting of an ancient city street. The scene is viewed through a large, ornate stone archway. In the foreground, several figures in traditional robes are walking along a cobblestone path. The background shows a hazy cityscape with domes and buildings under a cloudy sky. The overall style is reminiscent of 19th-century academic painting.

What Does Salvation Mean?

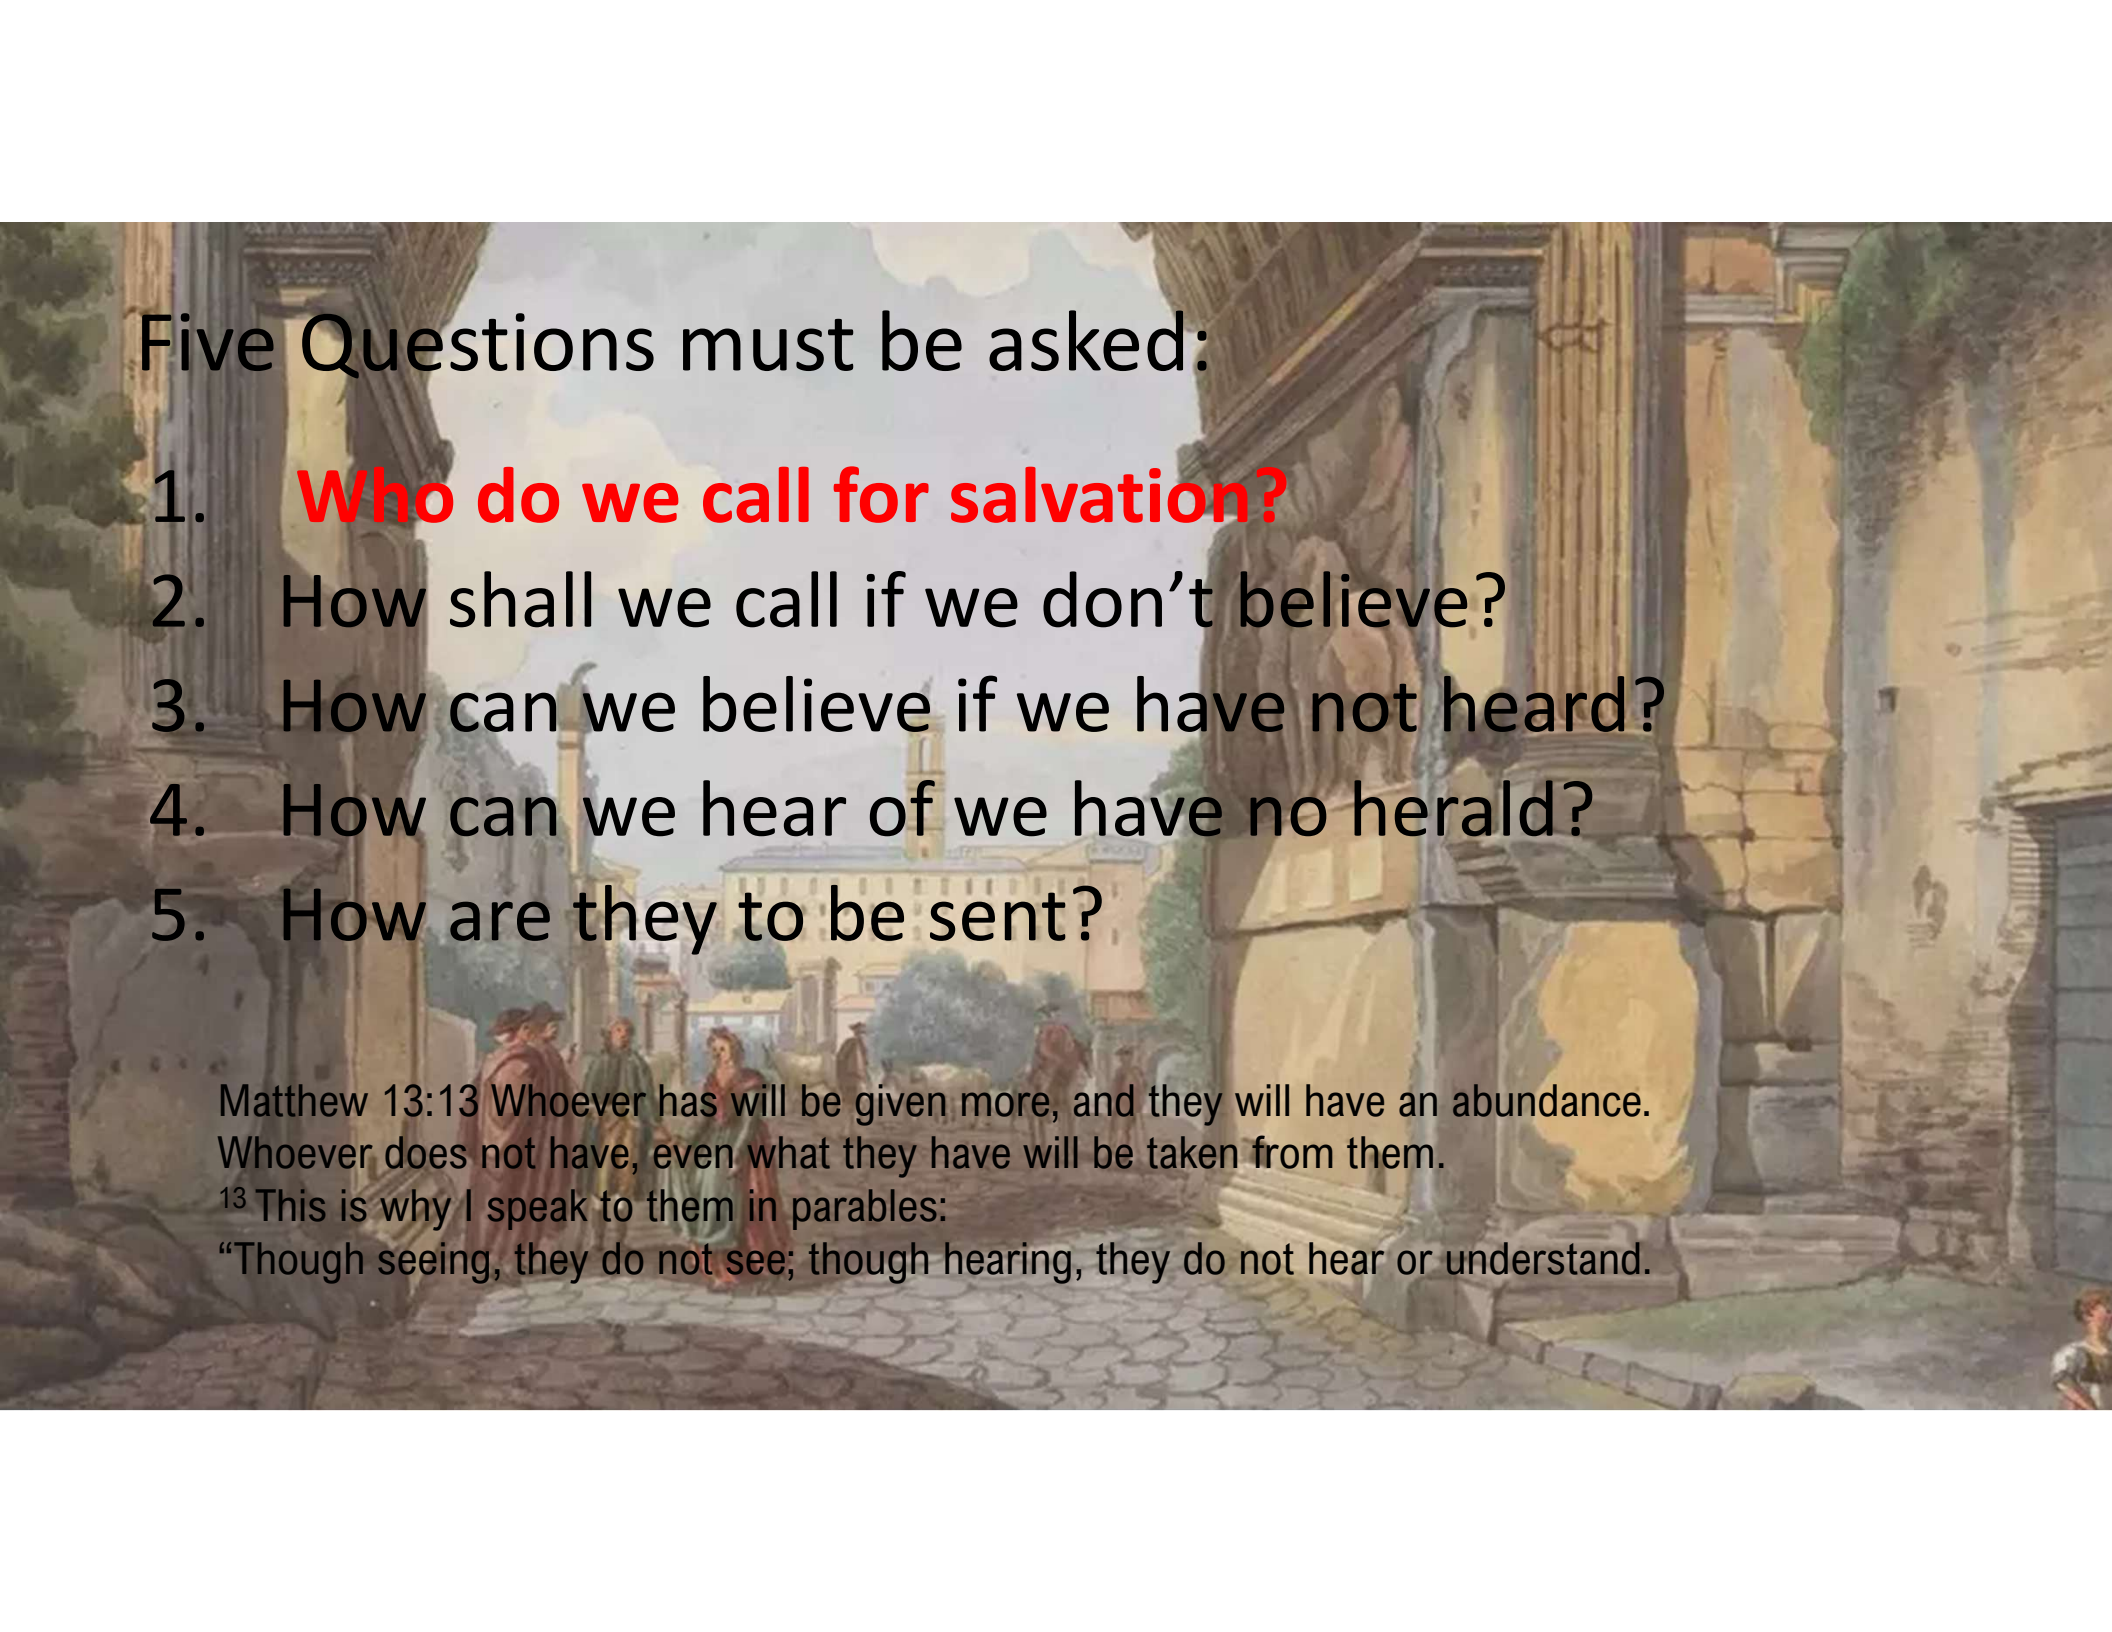

The term "salvation" can be defined as the act of saving or delivering a person's soul from the consequences of sin. It refers to the process of being cleansed from the guilt and power of sin, and being granted eternal life through faith in a God.
